DISTRESSING ACCIDENT.

A Pistol Shot Makes Necessary the Amputation of an Arm. Nicholas Brice Dorsey, aged 20 years a son of Chief Judge Reuben Dorsey' of the Howard County Orphans' Courc' was accidentally shot Sunday evening between 7 and 8 o'clock while removing the cartridges from a 32-caliber five-shot revolver. He had gone to the house of a neighbor, Mr. Henry F. Brosenne, in Howard county, near Oakland Mills, to make a call. In his pocket was the revolver, which is of the Smith & Wesson pattern, breaking at the breech, thus allowing it to be thrown open or shut. Fearing accident from carrying the loaded weapon indoors, on reaching Mr. Brosenne's yard the young man took the levolver from his pocket, threw the breech open and removed, as he thought, in the uncertain light, all the cartridges. It seems, however, that one was overlooked, and as the breech was thrown shut this was discharged. The report brought out Mr. Brosenne's household, to find Mr. Dorsey lying on the ground, with his left arm shattered near the shoulder. His brother, Dr. Reuben M. rad's Sanitarium, in Baltimore county, near the Relay, and Dr. T. W. Linthicum, of Savage, Howard county, were at once summoned. Early Monday morning the wounded man was removed to Efficott City, thence to the University of Mary-Hospital, Batimore. Unusually early symptoms of gangrene having set in, Dr. Tiffany was obliged to amputate the arm at the shoulder joint. Until the anæsthetics were administered in Monday's operation Mr. Dorsey was conscious and able to give an account of the

At this writing (Friday A. M.) it gives us pleasure to state that Mr. Dorsey under the circumstances is experiencing comparative comfort, and that all symp toms are favorable for his recovery.

A REMARKABLE COMBAT. Hawk and Water Snake Have a Desperate

Battle.

Mr. A. S. Weaver, of this place, tells of a very exciting and remarkable combat he witnessed while fishing along the river some time ago. He and a companion were sitting on the bank of the river angling for bass when, their attention was suddenly attracted by an unusual sound, and on looking up the shore they spied, about thirty yards distant, a hawk, which was flapping its wings in a desperate manner, causing the water to fly in every direction. Mr. Weaver approached the bird, and to his amazement he saw that it was encircled by a large water snake, which was making strenuous efforts to drag its prisoner toward the river channel. The hawk, however, showed its gameness, and was viciously pecking at the serpant's head and exposed portions of the body. Mr. Weaver, after witnessing the combat for some minutes, drew his pistol and despatched the hawk, which his snakeship had also succumbed to on the 26th inst. his snakeship had also succumbed to several well-aimed blows by a heavy cudgel. It is supposed that the bird pounced upon the snake while it lay after spending most of the winter in the temperance lessons in the interval of Sunday Schools, urge upon parents of Sunday Schools, urge upon parents the value of home readings on the lessons. The Presbyterians will Rebuild. The Presbyterians here seeing th dilemma they are in by the partial collapse of their church, which necessita tes the building of a new one, have gone to work with a will to reach the end desired. The trustees have already received: plan from Mr. Archer, architect, Balti more, which has been approved with some modifications. Instead of a two stories the main auditorium and Sunday school room will be on the same floor The latter will be directly in the rear o the main room and will be so arranged as to throw the two rooms into one. The seats of the auditorium will be placed in circular form. The style will be gothic with a tower. The public has shown a desire to assist in the enterprise and quite a number of contributions have come in. The edifice will cost not less than $6,000 but when once finished will be quite an ornament to that part of town upon the plans proposed.

Week of May 7th-First Appearance is Baltimore as a Star of Peter Daily In his Successful Comedy, "A Country Sport." Peter Daily, who has so long been looked pon as a performer of usual eleverness in farce, will make his debut as a star in this larce, will make his debut as a star in this city during the week of May 7th. After being assured a most hearty and flattering success throughout the entire Western territory, Mr. Daily appeared in New York and scored an immediate and emphatic success. For over a hundred consecutive performances he packed the theatre. The press as well as the public seemed highly delighted with his performance. The cinedy is a clever one written by John J. McNally, whose experience as a dramatist of farcical entertainments should warrant one to imagine much that is new and highly enterimagine much that Is new and highly entertaining in 7this play, Mr. Dally is surrounded in the way of an assisting company with the most attractive artists, and therefore all that is clever, ingenious and fetching in the comedy will receive the fullest justice in their interpretation, Among the company, the well known favorite, May Irwin, the original "tough girl," Ada Lewis, Frank R. Jackson and others will be recognized. Mr. Daily will produce "A Country Sport" with all the advantages that characterized the great New York run.
